

The World We Cannot Fix - Genesis 9-11 (p. 6)

After the flood, humanity receives a new beginning, but the same problems persist. From Noah's family to the Tower of Babel, we see humanity continue to pursue life on its own terms rather than God's. Yet, even amid human failure and judgment, God's grace remains and continues to point us to a solution only He can provide.

We Repeat the Pattern (Genesis 9:1-10:32)

We Pursue Our Own Way (Genesis 11:1-4)

God Confronts Our Plans (Genesis 11:5-9)

Weekly Highlights

The Thanksgiving Offering is an opportunity to give a one-time gift to support both global and local ministry efforts. Give online, in the lobby, or consider giving during our 10:00am Thanksgiving Day service. Simply designate your gift, "Thanksgiving Offering."

On November 25, due to the Thanksgiving holiday, there will be no Family Meal, Men's/Women's Bible Study, Student Groups, or Discovery Clubs. All regular weekday programming will resume on December 2.

Looking Ahead: Next Sunday, November 29, we will observe communion together as part of our worship services.

Pray

- for Krystal Fry, who is hospitalized this week.
- for the family and loved ones of Rolinda Brackbill, who recently went home to be with the Lord.
