Behold the King

His Last Supper – John 13:1-17 (page 900)

As Jesus gathered with His disciples for the Last Supper, He didn't just give them words—He gave them an example. The King of the universe knelt to wash the feet of His followers, demonstrating true greatness through humility and service. In this message, we behold the Servant King and consider how His example shapes the way we love, lead, and live as His disciples.

The Setting: A Meal Like No Other (13:1-3)

Knowing His hour had come

Knowing He would be betrayed, denied, and abandoned

Knowing His purpose and destiny

The Act: The Servant King (13:4-11)

He washed their feet

He used the physical to explain the spiritual

The Meaning: Follow His Example (13:12-17)

Wash one another's feet

Live the "Jesus way" as servants and sent ones

Reflection and Action: Who will you choose to love and serve this week as you follow the example King Jesus set for us?
