The Content Life

What We Have – 1 Timothy 6:5-20 (page 993)

Contentment isn't found in what we have but in how we steward what God has entrusted to us. In 1 Timothy 6, Paul challenges both those who lack and those who have, calling us to pursue godliness over greed and generosity over self-sufficiency. Contentment comes not from possessions but from a right perspective, right pursuits, and right priorities.

The Right Perspective (6:6-10)

Godliness with contentment is great gain

Perspective: Content with what we have

Warning: Love of money is root of evil

The Right Pursuits (6:11-16)

Flee and pursue

Fight the good fight of the faith

Take hold of eternal life

The Right Priorities (6:17-20)

Do not be haughty or hope in riches

Do good and be generous

Store up treasures

Guard the deposit entrusted to you

Reflection and Action: What do my pursuits reveal about my true priorities?
