Welcome to C56 Ministries

Thank you for investing in the lives of our Calvary 56 tweens. In your role as mentor, teacher, and disciple-maker, you will have many opportunities to speak life and truth into the hearts of our students and lead them into developing a deeper relationship with God. I trust you will be blessed as you engage with our students, develop meaningful relationships with them, and point our preteens to Christ.

Within this handbook are policies and procedures that are particular to the Calvary 56 ministry. Please familiarize yourself with the information and, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I am looking forward to serving alongside each of you. Thank you for faithfulness.

Message from the Senior Pastor

Dear Calvary Kids Team Members,

I want to personally thank each and every one of you for the commitment that you are making to invest in the children and the families that come to Calvary Church. On behalf of the entire Calvary staff and Elders, I want you to know that we are your biggest fans, your strongest supporters, and your trusted guides as you serve the Lord in Calvary Kids. This is a crucial part of your own pursuit of life in Christ.

You have the privilege of being one of the first people to have a spiritual influence in the lives of these kids, and for some, the time that you have with them each week might be the only spiritual influence that they receive. One of the challenges of working with children is that you may not always see the fruit of your labor, but I can assure you that your labor in the Lord is not in vain. You are helping to lay a foundation in their lives. You are placing the anchor of the Lord Jesus deep into their hearts so that they can withstand the storms to come.

Thank you for the sacrifice that you are making to serve Calvary Church. You are an essential part of helping all of us to pursue life in Christ.

Beau Eckert
Senior Pastor

Team Covenant

Every five years, you will be asked to sign the Calvary Kids Team Covenant when you receive your renewal clearance packet.

By signing the covenant, you are agreeing that you have or will...

Read and adhere to...

- Calvary Kids Team Handbook – Nursery, Early Childhood, K-4 or C56.
- Calvary Church’s doctrinal basis and doctrinal policy statements in all of your teaching and communication with children. (These documents can be found at the Connection Centers.)

Grow spiritually by...

- pursuing life in Christ, which will itself manifest in your personal relationship with Him, with your family, with your co-workers, and with the Church.
- seeking ways to be fed spiritually, outside of the regular worship service of Calvary Church, and to be accountable to other believers (i.e. ABFs, small groups, Bible studies, accountability partners/groups, etc.)
- communicating God’s love to each child who is in your care, and modeling Christ-like behavior, both in and out of your classroom

Work together by...

- being dependable in your ministry by being faithful in attendance, in preparation, and in prompt arrival.
- communicating in advance to co-workers and directors when you must be absent.
- following the principles in the Peacemaker’s Pledge when you have a conflict with a co-worker, a classroom coordinator, or one of the ministry staff.

Please do not underestimate the importance of your role in this ministry. Each member of our team has a significant role in sharing God’s love and the truth of His Word with our children each week. Please pray that God will use you to draw the children in your care into a closer relationship with Him!

We also encourage you to attend Discover Calvary to help you see how your role in Calvary Kids fits into the larger picture of Calvary Church.

Peacemaker's Pledge

Revised from The Peacemaker, by Ken Sande; 1997, Baker Books, Grand Rapids. p. 235-237

As people reconciled to God by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we believe that we are called to respond to conflict in a way that is remarkably different from the way the world deals with conflict (Matthew 5:9; Luke 6:27-36; Galatians 5:19-26). We also believe that conflict provides opportunities to glorify God, serve other people, and grow to be like Christ (Proverbs 27:5,6,17; Romans 8:28-29; 1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1; James 1:2-4). Therefore, in response to God's love and in reliance on His grace, we commit ourselves to respond to conflict according to the following principles...

Glorify God

Instead of focusing on our own desires or dwelling on what others may do, we will seek to please and honor God—by depending on his wisdom, power, and love; by faithfully obeying his commands; and by seeking to maintain a loving, merciful, and forgiving attitude. (Psalm 37:1-6; Mark 11:25; John 14:15; Romans 12:17-21; 1 Corinthians 10:31; Philippians 4:2-9; Colossians 3:1-4; James 3:17-18; 4:1-3; 1 Peter 2:12)

Focus on Understanding

Instead of focusing only on our perspective, we choose to honor others by listening carefully and ensuring we understand their perspective and their needs before we respond. We choose to actively seek reconciliation, understanding that conflict is an opportunity for personal and relational growth. (Proverbs 18:2; 18:13; James 1:19; Ephesians 4:29-30)

Get the Log Out of Your Own Eye

Instead of attacking others or dwelling on their wrongs, we will take responsibility for our own contribution to conflicts—confessing our sins, asking God to help us change any attitudes and habits that lead to conflict, and seeking to repair any harm we have caused. We take others' concerns before the Lord, asking Him to examine us and our ways and guide in our response. (Psalm 119:23-24; 139:23-24; Proverbs 28:13; Matthew 7:3-5; Luke 19:8; Colossians 3:5-14; 1 John 1:8-9)

Go and Show Your Brother His Fault

Instead of pretending that conflict doesn't exist or talking about others behind their backs, we will choose to overlook minor offenses, or we will talk directly and graciously with those whose offenses seem too serious to overlook. When a conflict with another Christian cannot be resolved in private, we will ask others in the body of Christ to help us settle the matter in a biblical manner. If the conflict or offense is still unresolved after the involvement of a few others, we will request the help of the elders in the church with the goal of bringing reconciliation. (Proverbs 19:11; Matthew 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 6:1-8; Galatians 6:1-2; Ephesians 4:49; 2 Timothy 2:24-26; James 5:9)

Go and Be Reconciled

Instead of accepting premature compromise or allowing relationships to wither, we will actively pursue genuine peace and reconciliation—forgiving others as God, for Christ’s sake, has forgiven us, and seeking just and mutually beneficial solutions to our differences. (Matthew 5:23-24; 6:12; 7:12; Ephesians 4:1-3, 32; Philippians 2:3-4)

Respect and Prize Differences

Recognizing that God has designed the body of Christ so that it includes many different parts, we choose to respect the differences of others. Since God has designed these differences for the mutual edification of the body, we choose to prize these differences, recognizing their value to us as individuals and the whole church. (Proverbs 27:17; Romans 12:3-8; 1 Corinthians 3:6-8; 1 Corinthians 12:12-26)

By God’s grace, we will apply these principles as a matter of stewardship, realizing that conflict is an assignment, not an accident. We will remember that success, in God’s eyes, is not a matter of specific results but of faithful, dependent obedience, and we will pray that our service as peacemakers brings praise to our Lord and leads others to know His infinite love. (Matthew 25:14-21; John 13:34-35; Romans 12:18; 1 Peter 2:19; 4:19)

Social Media

It is Calvary Church's desire to create an atmosphere of connection and community among our members and regular attendees. We know that a sense of identity and belonging to a smaller group within the church will enable an individual to feel a part of the whole body.

Guidelines for Church Volunteers

Please do not post any pictures of the children or your team members on any online platform.

When you do post personal items, remember...

1. What you write is public. You should always assume that it will be read by your boss, co-workers, parents, children, spouse, and the attorney for the person who doesn't like you. Ask yourself if you are comfortable with all of these people reading what you plan to post.
2. Write as yourself. Use your real name. If you choose to identify yourself as a volunteer of Calvary Church, or to discuss anything related to the church, be clear about your role.
3. Be accurate. Ensure that you have all the facts about your subject. If you make a mistake, admit it, and be quick to correct it. Be careful that what you write would not impair your ability to serve the Lord or represent Him in the community. Remember that frustrations are best expressed in person. Sarcasm does not usually translate well.
4. Respect your audience. Don't use ethnic slurs, personal insults, obscenity, or engage in any conversation that would not be acceptable in front of the Lord.
5. Choose your topics wisely. There are some ideas that are best discussed in person, rather than a public forum. Don't allow your posts to hinder someone's spiritual growth.

Remember that what you post, even if retracted, will always be available online.

Privacy Issues

Don't post the names or contact information of individuals without their permission. Don't post pictures of others that are inappropriate or that they would not appreciate.

Please remember to consider the safety and effectiveness of our Global Partners, and therefore, use extra caution when commenting to or about those serving overseas—particularly limited-access countries. If you have questions, contact the Global Ministries office first.

Maintain Confidentiality

Ask permission before reporting on conversations or meetings that are meant to be private. Online conversations and postings are not private. Know that what you post online may be around for a long time and potentially shared with others. Therefore, be considerate and loving: avoid identifying and discussing others, including church members and visitors—especially details such as hospitalizations and health concerns or information gleaned in personal counseling. Do not disclose health information on behalf of others.

Seek to build up, not to tear down. (Romans 15:2; Ephesians 4:29)

Relational Boundaries

One of the components of a balanced Children's Ministry is developing strong youth-adult partnerships within the intentional and safe community of our ministry. The vast number of communication possibilities and the speed of technology require that adults working with children and students be aware of the need to maintain appropriate relational boundaries, regardless of the communication medium. Communications on social media are most appropriate when conducted through a group.

Group Identity

Social media communication networks can help create a group identity, assist in planning for group activities, and encourage students. These mediums provide powerful modes of connecting with youth, and for youth to connect with each other, and should be channeled as such. Communications on social media are most appropriate when conducted through a group.

Adults must recognize the public nature of social networking sites and see themselves as representatives of God and Calvary Church. Thus, adult volunteers agree not to post any material that could be deemed inappropriate or explicit. So doing will be in violation of Calvary's values and expected code of conduct. If an adult advisor is in doubt about the appropriateness of any ongoing or new forms of communication, they should consult with a ministry staff member for guidance.

Photography & Video

We want our members and regular attendees to understand that we will, as a regular practice, take pictures and videos of all our events and ministries at some point in time.

We will provide parents and volunteers the opportunity to complete a general opt-out form for all events if they do not want their image to be used. A failure to turn in a completed opt-out form constitutes consent for you and your families' pictures or video footage to be used. We will seek to honor opt-out requests for images of individuals or small groups, but cannot ensure that the request can be adhered to for pictures or videos of large group events. Anyone who sees their picture posted on the church website and would like it removed can send a written request to the church office. Please indicate where the picture is located.

The Calvary Church Photo/Video Opt-out Form is available at any Connection Center.

General Guidelines

Approved Team Members

Only approved team members may work in Calvary Kids. Team member requirements include:

- Attendance at Calvary Church for at least six months, with occasional exceptions
- An Application for Service, which must be on file, including a criminal background, a child abuse check, and either FBI fingerprinting or a signed affidavit and National Background check
- Membership at Calvary Church is required to be in a leadership position.

There must always be adequate supervision to ensure the safety of the children.

- Two approved team members, one being an adult, need to be in the classroom at all times.
- Children should never be left unattended.
- A single volunteer or staff person should never be alone with a child in a classroom or bathroom. There should always be another approved worker within view.

ID Badges

You will need to wear your volunteer photo ID badge any time you are serving. If you forget your badge, go to a Check-in Kiosk to print a temporary badge, or go to a Connection Center. Please do not ask our Checkpoint volunteers to make an exception for you. They have been instructed to not allow any adult into the hallway who does not have a proper ID.

Serving with Children

- Children should remain on church property and not go on unauthorized trips with team members.
- Team members should only use activities and materials which are suitable to the age of the child and are appropriate in meeting the educational and spiritual goals of the church. Our curriculum has been designed with the age and abilities of the children in mind.

Help Needed

When Calvary Kids is in need of additional volunteers, 999 will be displayed on the screens in the auditorium. Please go to the West Connection Center to find out where you can serve.

Modesty

As Calvary Kids leaders, our goal is to help children focus their attention on God. One of the ways we can accomplish this is by dressing modestly. Appropriate dress does not draw attention to the individual, but allows both children and adults to focus on the truths being taught.

We want all aspects of our Calvary Kids Ministry to be honoring to God. Our purpose is not to present legalistic standards, but to be good role models, to be encouraging to all, and to be a stumbling block to no one. (Romans 14:13-18)

Remember, a child's perspective is different from ours. They see us from behind and from a different level when we bend over. Test yourself in front of a mirror and notice what others will see when you bend over.

Touch and Behavior Policy

Touch is to be appropriate. Always respect a child's refusal of touch. This models important lessons about respect for body boundaries and personal space. There is to be no corporal punishment of children.

Examples of touch that are OK:

- Reassuring touch: Pat on the shoulder, gently rubbing the upper back, or holding the hand of a child for safety or reassurance.
- Hugging gently if the child initiates or the child is receptive to being comforted. Try to avoid full body hugs.
- Tending to an injured child's wound or helping a child stand up who has fallen on the playground.
- See diapering and bathroom policies for assisting a child.

Examples of Touch or Behavior that are NOT OK:

- Any touch on a body area that would be covered by a bathing suit.
- A kiss on the mouth or cheek.
- Sexually suggestive joke or comment.
- Showing or viewing pornography.
- Hugs that are forced on the child.
- Any behavior that is romantic, intimate, or flirtatious.
- Children in grades K-6 sitting on volunteers' laps.
- Tickling, slapping, striking, or pinching.
- Lifting, carrying, or allowing children to climb on you as part of roughhousing, etc.
- Touching any child who does not want to be touched.
- Any touch that satisfies the adult's need at the expense of the child.

Any time there are questions about the behavior of other volunteers in the ministry (i.e. boundary issues), the volunteer is encouraged to bring the issue to the attention of the staff leader to address the issue.

Mandated Reporters

According to PA state law, all volunteers that work directly with children are considered mandated reporters. You are required to watch a Mandated Reporting video, unless you can affirm that you have been trained elsewhere. Each volunteer will sign a form stating that they understand they are a mandated reporter and the responsibilities of this role.

Emergencies

Windows on classroom doors should be unobstructed and clear. Blinds must remain up at all times except during a lock-down emergency situation.

The first aid kit is located inside the red emergency backpack. In the Nursery and Early Childhood classrooms, this backpack is hanging near the door. In K-4 and C56 classrooms, this backpack is hanging by the check-in desk. Adult team members may clean up minor scrapes and apply band aids and icepacks as needed.

Whenever you leave the room as a class, take the emergency backpack with you so that you will have all of your first aid supplies readily available if needed. If you find the first aid kit running low on any supplies, please let the Director know right away so that supplies can be replenished. In K-4 and C56 classrooms, extra supplies can be found in the Generic closet; please let the Director know when this closet supply runs low.

Emergency 911 Calls:

1. Team members are to call 911 directly if a child or an adult is:
 - unresponsive.
 - not breathing.
 - has no pulse.
 - has excessive bleeding.
 - is having a seizure.
2. After you have called 911, call the West Connection Center (ext. 247) to let them know what the medical emergency is, and state that you have already called 911. The team member at the West Connection Center will then contact the Emergency Response Coordinator.

Evacuation Procedures

Calvary Kids has plans in place for multiple emergencies and/or evacuation situations. Training on these protocols will be done in person and will not be posted online or printed for mass distribution. See your ministry leader for more details. Review procedures periodically throughout the year.

Allergies - Nut-Free Zone / EpiPens

All of Calvary Kids classrooms and hallways are NO NUT and NO PEANUT BUTTER zones. This restriction is in place even if another group is using the room, as minute particles of peanut residue can trigger an allergic reaction in highly sensitive individuals. It's just not worth the risk.

Some children may require the presence of an EpiPen® to use in the event of an allergic reaction. If one is needed, the parent will bring it and inform you of it. When you receive an EpiPen®, make sure it is in a sealed plastic bag and labeled with the child's name. Place it in the red emergency bag on the wall. If the child has a severe allergic reaction, one class leader should administer the EpiPen®, and another leader should call the West Connection Center to ask them to contact the parents and the Emergency Response Coordinator.

Sickness

In an effort to provide a healthy and safe environment for all of our children and staff, we ask that children and adults only be in our classrooms when they are healthy. If they have any of the following symptoms or illnesses, please do not attend class:

- Flu/COVID
- Fever (within the past 24 hours without medication)
- Vomiting (within the past 24 hours without medication)
- Diarrhea (for any reason)
- Conjunctivitis (Pink Eye)
- Rash
- Lice
- Any Contagious Illnesses, including:
 - Measles
 - Mumps
 - Active Chicken Pox

In addition, for Nursery or Early Childhood classrooms:

- Cold
- Persistent Coughing
- Thick Green or Yellow Mucus Discharge from the nose (clear drainage is allowed but not encouraged)

If any of these symptoms are noticed in a child, please promptly locate the parents and ask them to remove their child from class. For the health and safety of all our children and staff, there will be no exceptions to this policy. If you have any questions about the symptoms you notice, please talk with your room coordinator or with one of the Calvary Kids Directors.

If a child is being treated with antibiotics, he/she should be on the medicine for at least 24 hours before coming to any of the Calvary Kids classrooms.

Lice

If you discover, either through the parent or through conversation with other adults, that a child has been exposed to or is being treated for lice, please make sure that your Director is informed. Please do not talk with others about the matter. We do not want to cause any harm to the family that has been dealing with lice or cause other people to panic.

Thank you for helping us provide a safe and healthy environment for children, staff, and team members. We appreciate your cooperation and courtesy.

Incident Reports

An Incident Report documents an incident or injury and is a means of communication between the team member, the parent, and the Director. In addition, it provides proper documentation to the insurance company in the event a claim is filed.

- This form is to be a record for any incident or injury which occurs during any Calvary Kids event, on-site or off-site.
- The form should disclose only the name of the child for whom the incident is being reported. If the incident involves two children, then two separate forms will need to be filled out, with the other child being referred to as “another child.” (i.e. Billy bumped his head with the head of another child while playing.)
- Teachers should inform parents of any incidents, and a copy of the form should be offered.
- All incident reports must be turned in to the Director on the day it occurs.
- In the event of any head or serious body injury and 911 needs to be called, do so. Another team member should call the West Connection Center (ext. 247) to let them know what the medical emergency is, and state that you have already contacted 911. The team member at the West Connection Center will then contact the Emergency Response Coordinator.

Location of Blank Incident Reports

- Nursery: in a file at the Nursery Checkpoint desk.
- Early Childhood: in the wall pockets by the door inside each classroom.
- Elementary: in the check-in desk filing drawer.
- Conquerors: in the wall pocket by the door.
- Kids Choir: forms for 5th and 6th graders are located on the shelf outside of the Kids Choir Director’s office.

Curriculum:

Sunday (9:30 & 11:00am)

Throughout the year, there are a variety of Bible teaching units which encourage and challenge the students to dig deeper into God's Word. The focus is on encountering God and exploring His greatness, bringing about life-change through heart transformation, and discipleship by growing in faith, maturity, and wisdom, in order to lead others to Christ. The teaching units are taught in two year cycles and address tween needs, spiritual disciplines, topical studies, and Bible characters.

Wednesday Night Discovery Clubs

This is our main venue for teaching missions to kids on a regular week-to-week basis. The children learn that "missions exists because worship doesn't" (John Piper). God wants people from every tongue and tribe and nation to worship Him, and He wants to use every one of us to declare His glory...from our own neighborhoods to the nations.

Kids Choir

Singing praises to our God is an integral part of our worship. We value worshiping Him collectively! The goal of Kids Choir is to help children develop their talents so that they can lead others in worship and bring glory to God as they sing for Him.

Safety, Security, and Hygiene

*We want to provide the safest environment possible for our children.
Please remember that your actions determine our effectiveness!*

Children in Hallways

Children in 5th and 6th grade may be dismissed from class on their own unless a parent has specifically requested that they wait to be picked up.

Bathroom Procedures

Children should be strongly discouraged from using the restrooms during class time unless it is an emergency. Make this clear on the first day of class. Once you give permission for kids to leave, it will become an easy habit. If it is an emergency, please adhere to the following:

- Students in 5th and 6th grade may go to the restrooms unattended. Send only one child at a time. Please be aware of the time they leave your room, and follow up if they do not return in just a couple of minutes.

If there is no Checkpoint staff in place, the hallway doors will be locked, and the child will not be able to get back in! In that case, a worker with a key must accompany the child to the restroom. Wait outside the restroom until the child exits.

Locked Doors

- Hallway doors should be locked at all times, unless a Checkpoint volunteer is on duty. If you find an unmanned hallway door unlocked, lock it, or ask your coordinator to do so.

Allergies

Remember, Calvary Kids is a NUT-FREE ZONE. Other allergies that your children have are listed on a chart found on the inside of each closet and in the check-in desk drawer. Please check the list each and every time you serve food. If you have any question about a specific allergy, please contact the parents for clarification or to ask about alternate snacks for their child.

If you are planning to have snacks for a party or special occasion, please plan ahead so that you can include the children with allergies, either by providing an alternate snack or asking the parents to do so.

Relationships are Key

Ministry is about people! Relationships matter! Please be aware of how you communicate with...

Parents

- Be purposeful in trying to introduce yourself to your children's parents.
- Have an open-door policy that welcomes parents into the classroom.
- If you have an ongoing or a serious issue with a child, don't wait to communicate with and involve the parents! (See "Speaking with Parents" on page 20.)
- Return their calls and emails promptly.
- Inform them in advance of special events.

Kids

- Arrive on time and be ready to greet the first child who arrives. This confirms that they are special and that you value your time with them.
- Treat them as individuals. Use their names! Insist they wear their name badges where all leaders can readily see them.
- Wear your name badge so that they can call you by name.
- Always sit with your children. Your proximity and availability communicate that you are there for them and will lead and guide them even when someone else is teaching up front.
- Be fun!
- Set clear boundaries, and stick to them. When a child crosses a boundary, follow the steps in the "Honor Shines" section on pages 18-19.
- Be aware of children who have been absent for several weeks. Follow up with a phone call and/or a postcard.
- Follow up on their prayer requests.
- Communicate important information about your children to other team members who serve on different weeks than you do.

Teammates

- Arrive on time to set up and pray with your team. Remember, if you're not there, it puts stress on the rest of your team.
- Look for ways to encourage and help each other.
- Pass along important information so that you can be most effective.

Guests

- Stand and approach them. Introduce yourself to them. Make them feel welcome!
- Ask if they have any questions that you can help answer. Make sure they know where to go!

Honor Shines

*God is interested in hearts because that's where real and lasting change takes place.

We want to use every teachable moment to help build the inner character the children need to follow the Lord in every area of their lives. Those moments happen not only during Bible lessons but also as we help them to make honoring choices in their words and actions.

As children make honoring choices, not only do they “shine,” but far more importantly, God shines through them! Children will be better able to make right choices when expectations are clearly communicated.

- Review the Honor Shines poster regularly.
- When giving instructions, always expect the students to be quiet and looking at you. Make sure you are close to the students and looking at them.
- Give directions in regular speaking tones. Never shout over the students.
- If necessary, ask them to repeat instructions to ensure that they understood the instructions given.

When children make choices that are dishonoring, we will address both the behavior and the heart issue.

“Trying to change behavior will be fruitless without also rewriting what the child believes and says in his/her heart.”

Respond with a five-step approach, moving from one to the next as needed:

1. Look at the child. Often just catching his eye is all the reminder needed.
2. Move towards the child. Gently touch him on the arm if needed.
3. Address the student gently and quietly, without embarrassing him or interrupting the activity. Remind him of a better choice and clarify expectations.
4. Move the student away from the problem or remove the distraction from him.
5. Ask him to take a “break”—a short, quiet time removed from the group to think about what he is doing wrong, why it is wrong, and what he will do differently.

Any time you have to address a student or give him/her a “break,” be sure to follow up with a positive conclusion by asking:

- What did you do that was wrong/dishonoring? (Help them identify whether they were dishonoring God, His Word, a leader, others in the room, or property that doesn’t belong to them.)
- Why was it wrong/dishonoring?
- What will you do differently?

If he continues in his behavior, seek help. Start with your coordinator or lead teacher. If necessary, the C56 Director will contact the parent.

Speaking with Parents

It is very important that we see our role as partnering with parents in the ongoing spiritual development of their children.

All parents enjoy hearing encouraging words about their children! Don't be afraid to let parents know when you see signs of growth or honor shining in their son or daughter. You never know whether that very thing you observed is something they've been working on at home, and your recognition of it may be a huge boost to further growth!

At times, you will need to talk to parents about a concern you have with their child. In all discussions with parents, remember the following:

Don't Wait

No parent appreciates hearing in December that you have had a concern about their child since September! A good rule of thumb is to talk to your coordinator or ministry leader if there is any serious behavior that concerns you or if there is a pattern over several weeks of ongoing behavior and the child is not responding to your promptings in the classroom.

The Whole Picture

Do your best to refrain from jumping to conclusions about the heart of a child. You may not know that there are other things going on in his life that are affecting his behavior at church.

Speak Privately

Never begin a conversation with a parent concerning their child's behavior in the presence of the child or others. If, after speaking to the parent alone, you wish to bring the child into the conversation, feel free to do so.

Seek Assistance - Don't Accuse

Tell the parents what you have noticed and ask them if they have any insights to share that might help their child in class. Assure them that you love their child and want his/her experience in your ministry to be as enjoyable and profitable as possible.

Ask for Help

If you are not sure about what to say to a parent, don't let that stop you! Ask for help from your coordinator or Director. They will be more than happy to listen and to give some direction or to help facilitate a discussion if this is the first time you've had to speak to the parent.

Every Day is a New Day

God's mercies are new every morning...and so ours should be, too! Greet each child with a loving smile each and every week. Give them the opportunity to try again.

Helpful Tips

Hallways

Please insist that children walk in the hallways, not because they are in church, but because they are in a public place and should be considerate and honoring to others who are using the hallways as well.

Gym

If you would like to use the gym, you must reserve it through the C56 Director. Children must be supervised at all times, and all of our security rules apply. You will need a key to enter the gym. It is hanging on a hook inside the Generic closet in each classroom. You are responsible to lock the gym upon leaving.

Grades 1-4/C56 have a cabinet of gym supplies. It is located inside the gym storage room. The key that unlocks the gym will unlock the supply cabinet.

The gym supplies cabinet includes:

- Frisbees
- Giant Soft Frisbees
- Jump Ropes
- Soft Balls for Dodgeball
- Indoor Bases for Kick Ball
- Parachutes
- Cones (large and small)
- Pinnies for Team Sports

Playground

The outdoor playground is designed for children up through age 12. Children must be supervised at all times while on the playground.

Ball Use

Nerf balls are acceptable in the classroom for low intensity games only. Any balls or other object that accidentally hit the sprinkler nozzle can set off the fire system and cause extensive damage.

Cleaning

While we do have a fabulous custodial team, it is not their responsibility to clean up after your class. Please honor them and be considerate by putting all of your supplies away in the appropriate places. Use the vacuum in your generic supplies closet to clean up any obvious messes left on the floors. Wipe any obvious spills or messes off tables. For any major spills or messes that are beyond your ability to clean up, contact the Connection Center to notify our Facilities team.

Field Trips

All church-sponsored field trips off of church property must be approved. Please adhere to the following guidelines...

Approval

Your coordinator has the authority to approve a field trip. If your coordinator is unsure about a request, she/he will bring it to the attention of the C56 Director for approval.

Permission Forms

Two forms of communication must be sent home:

1. Memo explaining the purpose and details of the event
2. Calvary Church Field Trip permission form

No child will be able to participate without a signed permission form.

Give the C56 Director a copy of the memo you would like to send to parents. Fill in the needed information on one permission form and hand that in as well. The C56 Director will electronically transfer the information to the permission form and make as many copies as you need of the memo and the permission forms stapled together.

Please note: If you are having a special event here on our church property and the parents are accompanying their children, you do not need to collect permission forms.

Drivers

All drivers must be 21 years of age or older. No driver may be alone in a car with a single child unless that child belongs to him/her. Drivers must complete the Driver's Commitment Form and provide a copy of their driver's license and automobile insurance. Completed forms and copies may be turned in to the classroom coordinator who will give them to the C56 Director. Blank Driver's Commitment forms are found in the filing drawer in each room's check-in desk.

Safety and Security

The leader of the event must have all of the completed permission forms with him/her throughout the duration of the event.

All of our safety and security policies and procedures must be followed during any Calvary Church sponsored event.

On overnight events, males and females will have separate sleeping quarters. Males and females should stay out of each other's sleeping areas.

After the Event

All permission forms must be turned in to be filed. Our insurance company insists that we keep them on file for two years.

Children with Disabilities

1 Corinthians 12:12, 22

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ²²...the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable.

Including children with disabilities in C56 is part of our vision at Calvary Church. As a body of believers, we are incomplete without their active inclusion in our body. They are “indispensable.”

Here are some ways we can effectively include kids with disabilities:

- Provide a Buddy: For some children a 1:1 support person is provided. This “buddy” will support the child throughout the ministry hour. Buddies are trained to meet the individual needs of the children they are paired with. The level of support given depends on the need of the child. At times, a buddy will need to work very closely with a child. At other times, they may observe from a distance as the child participates as other typical children are participating.
- Get to know each child: A red folder is available in the classroom with information about each child affected by disability. Included in this folder is an “All About Me” sheet with pertinent information provided by the parents. Please read over this information if this child is in your classroom. This information is confidential in nature, so please don’t share this information outside the context of the classroom.
- The child with a disability is an active member of your class! As a volunteer in Calvary Kids, you will also be an active part of this child’s life. Your interactions with a child with special needs should mirror the type of interactions you have with the typical kids in your classroom setting.
- Fill your toolbox: See “Strategies and Ideas” (page 26) for suggestions to use when you encounter a challenging situation.
- Ask for help! The buddy provided for a child with a disability should be your first go-to person if there is a concern. Remember, you are all on this child’s team and will be working together to help this child and family pursue life in Christ. If there are ongoing concerns, please contact the Disability Ministry Coordinator by calling the West Connection Center (x247) during ministry hours or the church office at (717) 560-2341 during the week.

Terminology

Your words emphasize a person's worth.

Why worry about terminology? Because our words carry a great impact! Although it is more important to emphasize inclusion over politically correct language, we want to be aware that some people are sensitive to language. We communicate that we care for families affected by disability when we are willing to learn a new language. No one wants to be labeled. We always want to show grace and kindness because our actions and words will have a bigger impact than we may know. Let's take some time to read and reflect on the suggestions given below.

Let your words emphasize a person's worth and abilities, not their limiting condition.

Think of the person first and the disability second.

Take the parents' lead by using their same terminology when talking with the family or introducing them to others.

Always use Affirmative Phrases	Avoid Negative Phrases
Jane has special needs or a disability .	Jane is disabled or handicapped .
Fred has autism spectrum disorder or Asperger syndrome .	Fred is autistic .
Mary has Down syndrome .	Mary is a Downs child or a mongoloid .
Jon is deaf or hard of hearing .	Jon is deaf and dumb, hearing impaired , or "suffers" a hearing loss.
Matt is a child without special needs or "typical child."	Matt is normal or healthy . (This implies people with a disability are not normal or healthy.)

Strategies and Ideas

Be Ready! Fill your toolbox with ideas to make inclusion successful.

Transition Strategies

- Have a consistent schedule from week to week. This will help children know what to expect.
- Use a consistent signal for transition (bell, clapping, singing).
- Give advance warning if needed. (i.e. “In one minute I will ring the bell. It will be time to move to the large group for...”)
- Let the child bring something with him/her to the next activity. (i.e. Bring their “HOOK” activity page to finish during the large group or even a small toy or fidget.)
- Bring the activity to the child. (i.e. Bring the craft to the large group area, then encourage the child to go back to the table to finish up.)
- Use a picture schedule to show the child what is next. (One will be provided if needed.)

Small and Large Group Strategies

- Define a child’s space at the table by using a tray or masking tape. Put the material for that child only in that space.
- Seat a child in a place where he/she won’t feel confined (at the end of a row) and can have access to leave if needed. Being too close or crowded could be a problem. If he/she sits on the carpet during the Bible lesson be sure the child has a defined space. Use carpet squares or a mouse pad. Even if all the children are on the carpet, your student can sit on a chair if needed.
- If using all the blocks or crayons is too stimulating, give the child his/her own smaller basket of items to play with.
- Allow the child to bring a white board, pencil and paper, or fidget to the group Bible lesson if needed. Be sure a buddy or other adult is monitoring the use of these items.
- Use as many visuals as you have available to you.
- Give an active child a job or responsibility to carry out to encourage them to be included and engaged.
- Physical presence of an adult near a child can be helpful. A gentle touch on the shoulder may also help.

Behavioral Strategies

- Take time to really look at the behavior and try to understand why it is happening. Is the child bored, hungry, tired, over stimulated, doesn't like the activity? This may help you create a solution.
- Use positive directions. (i.e. Instead of saying, "Stop yelling," try saying, "Use a quiet voice.")
- When giving a specific direction, get down to the child's level and use their name. Use simple language and give directions one at a time. Allow time for the child to respond before repeating the directions. Model the behavior if it is appropriate. Reward compliance immediately using something meaningful to the child. A high five, sticker, or even a small treat can be used. Try out a few ideas to see what works and change it up as needed.
- Use a try again strategy regularly to teach appropriate behavior. When a child exhibits inappropriate behavior, ask him/her to repeat the action in an appropriate way. Guide them in whatever way is needed. For example, if a child is running down the hall, stop, go back, and walk with them down the hallway. Praise positive behavior.
- Use a picture symbol or predetermined sign (like "thumbs up") to encourage positive behavior. Point to the picture or use the sign without using words to encourage the appropriate behavior. Limiting verbal input may be helpful.
- Use a distracting activity if a child is having a tantrum. Try clapping, whistling, or turning the lights on and off briefly. If the child will cooperate, give them a drink of water through a straw. The goal is to break the tantrum cycle so the child can gain some control.

Sensory Strategies

- Explore the use of a fidget. Fidgets can help regulate a child's sensory system. They can be some sort of plastic or squishy object a child holds, distracting him/her and their brain so that the child can concentrate. (We have a variety available to try.)
- Utilize a sensory break as a proprioceptive activity. This can help a student orient his/her body in space.
 - Active: "heavy work" (i.e. pushing or carrying something heavy, pushing against the wall, using a thera-band on chair legs)
 - Passive: weighed lap cloth or weighted sock across the neck, carry a "heavy" backpack (limit weighted items to 10 minutes—use infrequently), therapy seat cushion or ball.
- If a child shows tactile defensiveness, a child can use gloves to touch "messy" things. The "messy" items from the activity can also be put into plastic baggies.
- Use a hula hoop or masking tape to mark off personal space.
- Help your student take deep breaths. Have them use their arms in an up and down motion as they breathe. Or use a straw or bubbles to blow out. Blow some things across a table.
