Johnny Miller, Pastor Emeritus and former Senior Pastor of Calvary Church (1999-2009), went to be with the Lord on Easter Sunday morning, at the age of 81, after a nearly 15-year battle with Parkinson's disease. Pastor Miller was widely known and deeply loved for his faithful exposition of God's Word and Christlike pastoral leadership. His ministry left a lasting impact on many lives, both here at Calvary and beyond. A celebration of life service will be held in Columbia, SC, on Wednesday, April 30, at 2:30pm. For those who wish to attend, we will be livestreaming the service in the Chapel. A link is also available by scanning the QR code.

Join us in praying for the short-term ministry team serving in South Korea through May 3. They are partnering with a Christian school in Seoul to offer a four-day English Bible Camp to about 40 students who are children of North Korean defectors.

God is at work in the lives of our students! Join Student Ministries for a night of baptism tonight at 6:00pm in the Lower Auditorium. During this time of worship, we'll hear the testimonies of several students as they publicly declare their faith in Jesus. We hope to see you there!

Hymns of Faith, a county-wide hymn sing, will take place at Calvary Church next Sunday, May 4, at 3:00pm. Come sing some of your favorite hymns alongside our choir, orchestra, and others in the community.

NC Hurricane Relief: Join us as we continue to serve North Carolina residents affected by Hurricane Helene! Additional teams are scheduled to serve alongside local NC churches from May 18-23 and June 15-20. Contact local@calvarychurch.org with any questions and to express interest.

Women who care for a family member with a disability or chronic illness are invited to join us on May 17 for Day of Blessing. This special morning is designed to bring encouragement as you fellowship with other women. For further details and to RSVP, please contact Sandy Robinson at srobinson@calvarychurch.org.

A new edition of the Global Ministries Prayer Guide is now available! Pick up your copy in the lobby to guide you in praying intentionally for Calvary's Global Partners throughout May, June, and July.

Behold the King

His Call to Follow

From the beginning of the Gospels through the resurrection of Jesus, we behold the King. But, if Jesus is King, then we must heed the King's call: to leave everything and follow Him as disciples. Yet, even in the struggles of faithful discipleship, Jesus reveals Himself as a King who restores us as we seek to follow Him.

The Call of the King: Follow Me! (John 20:31; Luke 5:1-11)

Peter's Failure: Denial of the King (Mark 14:53-54; 66-72)

The King's Response: Restoration (John 21)

Three Questions

Our Response to the King: Keep Following!

Reflection & Action: What step(s) can I take to follow King Jesus more faithfully this week?
