Anchored in the Word

Psalm 19 (page 456)

In a culture full of competing information and voices, God invites us to anchor ourselves in His self-revelation to know Him better. In our first anchor text, Psalm 19, the psalmist celebrates God's revelation—through creation and the Scriptures—as a means for us to encounter God. Here, we're reminded of the many benefits available to those who value God and His Word.

Embrace Theological Thinking (2 Timothy 3:14; 1 Timothy 4:6)

Celebrate God's Revelation in Nature (Psalm 19:1-4)

Celebrate God's Revelation in Scripture (Psalm 19:7-9)

Celebrate the Benefits of God's Word (Psalm 19:7-14)

Reflection & Action: This week, what would it look like to prioritize God's presence and His Word in my life daily?
