

The background is a dark, almost black, textured surface. On the right side, there is a prominent, vertical, light-colored streak that appears to be a reflection or a light source, creating a strong contrast with the dark background. The texture of the background is grainy and organic, with some faint, lighter-colored fibers or strands visible.

Pastor Fred Raupp has been approved by the Elders to transition into the role of Pastor of Operations and Projects. On staff since June, Fred brings to our team a unique blend of pastoral experience and project management skills. Our church constitution requires two weeks' notice for member comments. Please direct any thoughts to elders@calvarychurch.org.

Singles between the ages of 35-60 are invited to a Common Ground Christmas potluck dinner on Sunday, December 21, from 5:00-7:30pm. Join us in the cafe for fellowship and friendship as we celebrate the Savior's birth. Sign up online to let us know you're coming and what you plan to bring. After dinner, we plan to group up and drive around the local area to see Christmas lights!

We each have an opportunity to participate in God's work by serving others! God can use your unique gifts to leave an impact that leads to life change. No matter your skill set, there's a place for you to serve at Calvary! Visit our Volunteer Hub online to explore specific ways you can invest at Calvary Church, and fill out the serving interest form to start the conversation. If you're not sure where to start, no worries! We're here to help!

In the In Between
Luke 1:46-55 (p. 856)

Life can feel disorienting in the “in-between” seasons of our journey. Through Mary’s song in Luke 1, we discover that God is trustworthy because He is personally present, mighty in compassion and justice, and faithful to keep His promises.

God is Personal (1:46-49)

God is Mighty (1:50-53)

God is Faithful (1:54-55)
