

Going Into God's World

Psalm 67 (p. 481)

For over 88 years, Calvary Church has been committed to Going into God's World. But what fuels that commitment? Is missions driven mainly by human need or by God's glory? Psalm 67 reveals that God blesses His people, so that His saving power and praise would spread to all nations. So, today, we'll understand why the mission of God has always been central to the heart of God, and why it must remain central for us.

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

¹ May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us,

Selah

² that your way may be known on earth,
your saving power among all nations.

³ Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!

⁴ Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth.

Selah

⁵ Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you!

⁶ The earth has yielded its increase;
God, our God, shall bless us.

⁷ God shall bless us;
let all the ends of the earth fear him!

Reflection and Action: What specific next step can you take this week to help the nations know God and be glad in Him?
