

The Gospel

The Good News Made Visible

The gospel is not just something we hear, but it is something God has made visible in Jesus Christ. So, it only makes sense that, in baptism and communion, we are given physical, visible reminders of what Christ has done for us—helping us see, experience, and remember the good news. Today, we'll explore how these physical experiences repeatedly point us to Jesus.

Physical Reminders of Spiritual Truths

Baptism: A Picture of Our Union with Christ and His Church

Union with Christ – Romans 6:3-5

Union with His Church – 1 Corinthians 12:12-13

Communion: A Reminder of God's Provision

Bread and Cup – Luke 22:19-20
