Support Through Community: Our support groups will encourage you to draw near to God and embrace His purpose in your struggles. Through a loving community of individuals who share in each other's experience, we create a safe environment for you to share your story and receive the help you need for healing and restoration. Walk alongside kids as they navigate what's next. Fifth and sixth graders are at a unique stage—growing in independence while still needing caring adults who know them, encourage them, and point them to Jesus. Serve as a table leader and help build relationships through conversations, consistency, and discipleship before and after Bible teaching. And if middle grades aren't where you feel called, there are many other opportunities to invest in the next generation. Scan the QR code for more info.

We're Hiring! Have you ever thought about using your gifts and skills to further the Kingdom of God? Do you have a passion for discipling others through the context of the local church? We'd love to talk with you. We have open positions in Family Ministry, Communications, Facilities, Administration, Preschool, and more! Visit our website to learn more and apply.

Not Home Yet: A Study of 1 Peter

Honor – 2:13-17 (page 1015)

We live as exiles with a new identity, a new community, and a new priority—but what does this look like in our daily life choices? In this passage, Peter explores the tricky question of how believers should relate to government and clearly admonishes: “Show your devotion to God by winsome and wise submission to human government.”

Two Key Commands:

(1) We submit to all because of the Lord (vv. 13-16)

The Focused Directive (vv. 13-14)

The Motivation for Submitting (vv. 15-16)

(2) We honor all in the fear of the Lord (v. 17)

“Honor all”

“Fear only God”

“Love the brotherhood”

Reflection and Action: Select one or more of the following areas to target for improvement in your life related to human government: 1) Basic civil obedience; 2) “Honoring” behavior toward leaders; 3) Charitable interactions with other believers; 4) Ultimate devotion to God as supreme King.
