Not Home Yet: A Study of 1 Peter

Endurance – 2:18-25 (page 1015)

Following Jesus does not exempt us from hardship. In fact, Peter reminds us that suffering is often part of the Christian journey. In today's passage, we'll discover how followers of Jesus endure unjust treatment—not by retaliation or despair, but by following Christ's example and trusting in His saving work. As we look to Jesus, our suffering Savior and faithful Shepherd, we find strength to endure with hope.

Endure Unjust Suffering (2:18-20)

Follow the Example of Christ (2:21-23)

Trust the Work of Christ (2:24-25)

Reflection and Action: This week, what would it look like for you to entrust yourself to the One who judges justly? (1 Peter 2:23)
