

Not Home Yet: A Study of 1 Peter

Marriage – 3:1-7 (page 1015)

Marriage can be one of the greatest displays of the gospel... or one of its greatest contradictions. In this passage, Peter continues his call to live honorably as exiles by showing how the transforming power of the gospel reshapes our closest relationships. Whether or not you are married, this passage reminds us that our conduct, character, and relationships are all opportunities to help others see Christ through us.

Live as a Gospel Witness (3:1-2)

Cultivate Gospel Character (3:3-6)

Reflect the Gospel Together (3:7)

Reflection and Action: How is the gospel transforming your conduct in the relationships that matter most?