

Stand Firm – 5:6-14 (page 1017)

Today, we come to Peter's final words to believers living as exiles in a difficult and hostile world. His closing encouragement also summarizes the entire letter: This is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it. As we conclude our study, we'll see how God's grace enables us to humbly trust His care, firmly resist the enemy, and confidently hope in His promises until the day He finally brings us home.

Humbly Trust God's Care (5:6–7)

Firmly Resist the Enemy (5:8–9)

Confidently Hope in God's Promise (5:10–14)

Reflection and Action: Right now, where do you most need to stand firm in the true grace of God?
