

God's Good World - Genesis 1:2-25 (p. 1)

What does the world God made reveal about the God who made it? In Genesis 1, we watch God bring order to what is formless, fill what is empty, and declare His creation “good.” Through the rhythm of His creative work, we discover a God of power, wisdom, purpose, and generosity. And as we learn to see His world through that lens, we are invited to see His glory and respond in worship.

God Brings Order to His World (Genesis 1:1–2)

God Fills His World with Goodness (Genesis 1:3–25)

God's World Reveals His Glory (Psalm 19:1; Habakkuk 2:14; Revelation 4:11)

Reflection and Action: What does the world God made reveal about Him, and how might that change the way you see and live in His world?
